

38 Weaber Street, Clontarf

Renovated Classic on a Corner Block

This traditional beach shack has undergone a trendy reno to bring it into the modern age. The current owners enjoyed living here, kicking the ball in the back yard, walking the kids to school and taking an afternoon stroll to the beach before they headed south to be closer to family. The property is now currently rented to a great young couple who enjoying living here and maintain the property well. The hard work has been done inside and the outside really is a blank canvas – add a big shed and pool, huge entertainment deck at the rear or even undertake extensive renovations to make the floor plan bigger. Investors would also appreciate the ability to add a granny flat (STCA) and increase the rental returns down the track.
