23 Saraband Dr, Eatons Hill

ELEVATED LOCATION OPPOSITE PARKLANDS

This highly sought after spacious, light filled home is located in an elevated position, overlooking HT Ireland park and playground areas with the bus stop right across the road making this home an ideal location for both school or uni students and city commuters or for those that do not drive.

The open plan single level design home is appealing as you walk in the front door incorporating a spacious lounge in addition to the large family and dining area adjoining the centrally located kitchen area featuring ample cupboard space with a large bench for preparing those amazing family meals.

The master bedroom is spacious in size and features, a walk-in wardrobe and en-suite with large shower. Servicing the family is a bathroom with space where you have a full size bath and shower & separate toilet.

There are three additional bedrooms featuring built-in wardrobes, ceiling fans and screens and are generously proportioned to suit families of all ages.

The fully fenced, back yard has plenty of lawn area for the family and pets to enjoy, and can be easily accessed by the sliding glass door from the family living area where you can create something special.

Garaging is not a problem here with a large double lock up garage and combined laundry area where you have direct access from the water tank to your washing machine.

Some of the many features included in this home are:

Large 780m2 block of prime land
