Scarborough

Unit 3, 178 Prince Edward Pde, Scarborough

SOLD BY LEISA LOWE !!!!

Location is what Real estate is about and this has to be on of the best on the peninsula.

Quality and privacy is what this boutique complex stands for as there are only 4 town homes in the complex.

Situated over two expansive levels this stunning property offers a magnificent open plan design, generous bedrooms, private outdoor entertaining area and private beach access.

Rarely do properties in this size become available on the peninsula. Being perfectly positioned between Redcliffe central and Scarborough's beachside cafe hub, this property really does have it all with the lifestyle to match.

Enjoy the convenience of the gated path that connects through to Flinders parade where you can throw your rod in and have a fish or take your towel and a good book and sit down on the beach. The location is A1.

The Redcliffe Peninsula offers a lifestyle to envy whether it's a walk along the waterfront to a cluster of cafes, restaurants and local Sunday markets, great public and private schools within walking distance, parks, great fishing, the marina, Moreton Bay boat club, Redcliffe golf Club, whale watching, skydiving, take your jet ski or tinny out and launch it off the boat ramp just around the corner and take a quick trip to Moreton Island.

This very spacious modern townhouse will suit those looking for a maintenance free lifestyle without losing the freedom of space if stairs are your issue don't worry as this one comes with its own chair lift.

Located one property back from the Queens Beach you can enjoy the water views from the front balcony and enjoy those moreton bay breezes all year round.
