

18 Kalimna Street, The Gap

Motivated Sellers - Distinctive, Devine and Daringly Different

18 Kalimna Street, The Gap is a stylish family hide away close to the city. The current owners built the home in 1962-1963 and have adored living here ever since. The time has come to downsize and head into care so this one is hitting the market for the first time ever. The home is original, spacious and features mid century modern charm. Perfect for those starting out, looking to put their own on stamp on a property or even those who appreciate the well-built classics. The home is tidy and move in ready now.

Sitting pretty in an elevated 622sqm block with views out to Mount Coo-tha this one is ripe for a new family to love it as much as they last. Best of all the street is quiet, treelined and close to everything

The home features:

Upstairs:

- Welcoming North facing front porch. Great for watching the street pass by and soaking in the cool breezes.
- Large open plan lounge and dining with cathedral ceilings and ornate timber panels. This room is air conditioned and flooded with natural light through the floor to ceiling glass windows and doors. Out the rear of the lounge are views across the suburb and to Mt Coot-tha.
- The kitchen also has views across to the mountains. There is ample storage and practical bench space, a ceramic cooktop, double fridge cavity, wall oven, dishwasher and a large pantry.
- 3 larger than average bedrooms with built in robes
- Family bathroom with a shower and vanity basin with good storage. The toilet is separate
