7/70 John Street, Redcliffe

Central Location – Neat – Modern

Positioned within walking distance to the waterfront, major shopping, weekend markets, restaurants, cafes, public transport and even the Redcliffe Lagoon this one will not last long.

The property is generously spaced over 2 levels and sits in the middle of a well-maintained and low maintenance block. The property is in a very good condition and living here allows residents to enjoy the convenient location but also have the added benefit of sitting quietly back off the main street and out of the hustle bustle.

The entire property is light and bright and there are ample windows to encourage and welcome the sea breezes.

If you are looking for a set and forget investment in a high demand area, a great starter or quality property to downsize to, this is perfect. On offer here is the chance to live close to the beach, East of Oxley Avenue, in a modern residence with a very reasonable body corporate. No car? No problems, everything you need is on your doorstep.

This immaculate property features:
