1950s CLASSIC - RESTORE TO FORMER GLORY AND...

Attention small job renovators, investors. This well looked after family residence is only a small amount of dollars and hard work from being a one of Peninsula landmark home.

Recently rendered over double brick and with a tiled roof the home is just screaming for a little loving. Polished floors throughout, full brick walls that give fantastic insulation and noise reduction, 11ft ceilings with period fretwork, recessed lighting in the living room ceiling, a working timber fireplace, french doors to a huge modwood deck, country kitchen that takes you back to your childhood, formal dining, 3 huge bedrooms plus study and a winecellar/storeroom.

Parking is no problem as there is a 6x9 shed big enough for 2 cars and workshop, 2 car carport as well as another single car lockup garage all on a generous 600sqm block. This property is sure to make a lovely home, a fantastic rental due to its great location and with a little reno would be a very stately residence.
